VOLUME L. NUMBER 14.

ALL rejoice that the big railroad strike has been declared off—that is, all except those patriotic partisans who, for political advantage, would send the country to the demdition bow wows.

OUR neighboring city, Fredericktown, is flourishing as never before. Workmen in demand at higher wages than ever known before; not a vacant house in the town. How sad that such things can be under Democratic Free Trade!

THE Hughes literary having fallen flat as an enthusiasm producer, the management are besieging Teddy to get out and "put some pep" into the campaign; to galvanize, as it were, the cadaver of the stand-pat g. o. p. With what joyful greeting he will be hailed by the Progressives! Revenge is sweet, and they have not forgotten how he contemptuously threw them down at Chicago.

THE German Catholic Central Verein, has gone into politics. It gives vent to its religious solicitation for the welfare of the Sacred Lord's Anointed Kaiser and his Blessed Militaristic Ruler. That's what the Verein's denunciation of Americanism and Wilson's stand for Americanism amounts to. Meantime the Menace laughs in glee at this first aid to its unholy crusade for religious hatred and prejudice.

I HAVE never taken my brother of the Potosi Journal seriously since his pronouncement two or three years ago that protective tariff made wages higher and the products of labor lower! The man who can reconcile the two utterly divergent points of that proposition ought to devote his time and mentality to the squaring of the circle, the determination of the bounds of infinitude, the coalescing of oil and water, etc. Mere dollars' and cents' computation ought not concern him.

THE record of the Wilson administration in the conservation of our public domain and resources will meet with the cordial approval of those Americans who have seen with regret vast areas of public lands pass into the greedy hands of monopolists, billions of tons of coal, the property of all the people, transferred to a favored few, and other public resources frittered away, and who re-echo the frauds and scandals that made these great national blessings a source of shame. In sharp contrast with some of its predecessors stands the Wilson record. No fraud or trickery or even charge or rumor of fraud or scandal has occurred. All of the vast territory and riches of the nation have been conserved for the benefit of the nation, the needs of the future considered and provided for and millions of acres made available for homestead entry. The record is without a blur and of marked energy and accomplishment.

Some of my Republican brethren in this section affect to hold in light concern the Progressive defections from Hughes. For instance, the Potosi Journal:

Judge Norton of St. Louis has come out in the open as a Moscovocrat and will work for the Democratic ticket. The Judge has just about enough political influence to turn one vote. He's a dead one.

This reminds me of an incident said to have been attendant upon Noah's flood. As the ark, in the rapidly rising waters, swept by an elevated spot of terra firma, an individual submerged breath high cried out, "Open the door and let me in!" "Can't do it," said Skipper Noah; "you've had your chance to be saved, but neglected it. Good-bye!" The abandoned man cheerfully called out, "Go along with your damned old boat! I don't believe it's going to be much of a shower, anyway!" Brethren, this is going to be quite a shower, with date set for November 7, 1916. Better come in out of the wet while the door is still open.

Six weeks ago Cornelius Roach was the contending man for governor in Monroe County and in the state. Shannon's desertion to Atkinson at Kansas City brought the fight to an open showdown between the Ripley county man and Gardner and from that moment the chances of the secretary of state began to wane. He was caught between the upper and nether grindstones and attempts to stem the tide were futile. Hundreds of Democrats in Monroe county voted against him reluctantly even when they were convinced he had no chance. The Mercury still believes that he was the best equipped man in the race and has no regrets for having gone to the last ditch with him. Colonel Gardner, if elected, could do himself and his administration credit by making the secretary of state head of the public utility commission. No man in the state has the information regarding public service corporations that Roach has or would make a more loyal or efficient servant of the people. His friends in the party are a multitude and they have a right to ask this much of the nominee.—Paris Mercury.
